A Note on this Guide

The DeKalb County Resource Guide: A Guide to Refugee-Friendly Resources (herein after referred to as the Guide) was created to share basic information about programs and services in DeKalb County that work with refugees. The programs and services are not all specifically designed to help refugees, but may still be useful. The Guide does not list all of the services available in DeKalb County and is not meant to be a comprehensive list. Listed information may not be up to date; always call and check with each service provider to verify details before using or referring their services.

Car Services

OVERVIEW
All drivers are required to have a driver’s license from the Georgia Department of Driver’s Services (DDS). Three tests are required to get a license: a vision test, a written test on general road rules and signs, and a driving test with a DDS official.

Cars must be registered and titled within 7 days of purchase or 30 days of moving to Georgia. Registration proves taxes have been paid on the car and must be renewed every year on the owner’s birthday. The title proves ownership. Cars that are not registered and titled are illegal to drive and can result in fines or loss of license.

TYPES OF LICENSES
- Class CP /Permit: A license for people 15 – 18 years old that lets them practice driving only when an adult with a Class C license is riding in the front seat.
- Class D /Intermediate License: A license for people 16 – 18 years old who had a Permit that limits the hours the license holder can drive, who can ride in the car, and the number of people who can ride in the car.
- Class C: A license for people who are 18 years and older.

OVERVIEW

Public schools are free schools. Schools are organized into school districts. The school district can help families enroll their children, sign up for a free bus, and find programs like tutoring and free lunch.

SCHOOL ENROLLMENT

Georgia requires children go to school from their 6th birthday to their 16th birthday. Children 6 – 16 years old MUST be enrolled in and attend school. DeKalb County’s International Welcome Center enrolls international students. Call or visit them before the school year starts. They will ask for:

1. Copies, front and back, of the child and parents’ I-94
2. The child’s social security card, proof of application for a card, or social security waiver
3. Certificate of Vision, Hearing, and Dental Examination
4. Certificate of Immunization or immunization waiver
5. Proof of residence
   Examples: a gas, water, or electric bill; signed lease; signed mortgage agreement
6. The child’s transcripts and discipline records from previous schools (if applicable)
7. A completed Student Information Form, Home Language Survey, Interview Form, and Ethnicity Survey (available at International Welcome Center)
8. Proof of guardianship if not the child’s birth parent (Power of Attorney or contact the DeKalb County Probate Court at 404-371-2718)

TYPES OF PUBLIC SCHOOLS

- Pre-Kindergarten (Pre-K): Pre-K is for children who are 4 years old on or before September 1st. Pre-K is not required but helps children practice English and provides child care for working parents. For more information, see Youth Services on page 35.

- Kindergarten: Kindergarten is for children 5 years old on or before September 1st. Kindergarten is not required but helps children practice English, learn skills that he or she will need later in school, and provides child care for working parents.

- Elementary School: Elementary school is for kindergarten – 5th grade. Children are REQUIRED to enroll in elementary school for 1st grade when a child is 6 years old on or before September 1st.

- Middle School: Middle school is for grades 6th – 8th or when a child is 11 years old on or before September 1st. Middle school is REQUIRED.

- High School: High school is for grades 9th – 12th or for children 14 years old on or before September 1st. High school is REQUIRED until a child’s 16th birthday. Even though the last years of high school are not required, it is very important children graduate. Most jobs require a high school diploma and people who do not graduate high school cannot find good jobs in the U.S. Also, children must be in school to get their driver’s licenses.
AGING OUT

U.S. law says students who are 21 years old on or before September 1st can no longer attend public school, even if they have not graduated high school. Refugee teenagers are often placed in grades with younger students so they can meet all of the requirements for graduation. This places many refugee teenagers at high risk of aging out, or being required to stop school because of their age.

If a child is at risk of aging out or has already aged out, it is important for him or her to continue studying and earn a GED, which is the equivalent to a high school diploma. Remember, a high school diploma (or GED) is required for most jobs in the U.S. and for children to become self-sufficient.

Emergency Services

OVERVIEW
There are many services that provide help during an emergency. It is safe to call any emergency service, and they will help immediately. All emergency services are open 24 hours a day.

CALLING 911
If you or someone with you is in immediate danger, it is important to call 911 to get help. When you call 911, you should:

1. Tell the dispatcher, or the person who answers the phone, your name, phone number of the phone you are using, and the address where you are at.
2. Explain the emergency. Give lots of details so the emergency service providers can be ready to help you as soon as they arrive.
3. Follow all the instructions the dispatcher gives you on the phone.
4. Never hang up the phone before the dispatcher tells you to.

If you cannot speak English, it is okay and you should still call 911! The dispatcher will get an interpreter to help you. DO NOT HANG UP THE PHONE! Speak slowly and clearly. Give your name, phone number, address, and what language you speak. Then wait patiently while the dispatcher finds an interpreter.

English Services

OVERVIEW
Citizens and residents of the U.S. have the right to understand what is going on around them. It is important for individuals and families to understand all the options for things like schools and health care so they can make the best decisions.

INTERPRETATION AND TRANSLATION
Interpreters interpret spoken words from one language to another and can help with meetings like doctor’s appointments or parent-teacher meetings. Always request an interpreter that speaks the language the person-in-need of interpreting knows best. Translators translate written documents from one language to another. Translators can help convert documents like resumes, school diplomas or transcripts, marriage certificates, and work experience into English. These services can be very expensive, so check with the person-in-need’s resettlement agency to identify the services they provide, first.

ENGLISH LANGUAGE CLASSES
Many colleges and universities offer English classes. Unfortunately, these classes can be very expensive and require a lot of time. There are also many organizations that offer cheap or free English lessons at different times of the day throughout the week.

OVERVIEW

Family violence is when one partner in a relationship uses constant abusive methods to maintain power and control over another partner. This behavior is unacceptable in the U.S. because it has harmful effects on all family and community members such as physical injury, trauma, and even death. If you or someone you know is a victim of family violence, remember you are not alone and there are many organizations and people here ready to help at any time of the day.

TYPES OF FAMILY VIOLENCE

Physical
Hitting, kicking, biting, pushing, choking, pulling hair, damaging property, driving dangerously, threatening or hurting you with knives or other weapons, preventing you from leaving or getting help, abandoning you in unfamiliar places

Emotional
Name calling, intimidating, blackmailing, harassing, intentionally embarrassing you or hurting your feelings, blaming you for their abusive behavior, threatening you or those you care about (including pets), serially cheating on you, gaslighting (making you question your memory or sanity, ex: “Are you sure? You have a bad memory.”)

Sexual
Forcing sex, forcing sexual dress, forcing the watching of pornography, criticizing sexual performance, forcing or preventing abortions, using weapons or objects to hurt you during sex, intentionally passing on sexually transmitted diseases (STDs)

Financial
Forbidding or limiting work, forbidding school attendance, refusing to contribute to household finances, limiting your access to money, stealing money from you or those you care about, intentionally damaging your credit score

ESCAPING FAMILY VIOLENCE

Anyone can be a victim of family violence and it affects everyone regardless of age, race, gender, or economic status. Family violence victims can be husbands, wives, sons, daughters, mothers, fathers, brothers, sisters, grandmothers, grandfathers, girlfriends, boyfriends, etc. Many people who are victims of family violence blame themselves for what is happening. But nothing a victim says or does ever justifies being abused.

Some victims of family violence do not ask for help because they are ashamed, do not want to leave their family, or are afraid. Family violence service providers understand and can help anyone in a family violence situation find the best solution for his or her family.

Health Services

HEALTH INSURANCE

The Affordable Care Act requires each person to have health insurance. All Georgia residents must have health insurance or risk paying a fine. Acceptable health insurance includes:

- Medicare
- Medicaid
- The Children’s Health Insurance Program (CHIP)
- Any private insurance plan you already have
- Any plan purchased through Marketplace
- Any plan provided by an employer
- Any plan for active military or military veterans
- Any plan for Peace Corps members
- Any plan offered by universities beginning on or before December 21, 2014

Navigators are trained individuals who are unbiased and help individuals and families find the best plan. Navigators will help for FREE. Do NOT work with a Navigator that charges money for their services or works with an insurance company.

PRESCRIPTION ASSISTANCE

Prescription Assistance Plans help uninsured or underinsured individuals and families pay for their prescriptions. With a prescription assistance plan, prescriptions can be free or very cheap. Prescription assistance plans are NOT insurance plans, they only help pay for prescriptions.
EMERGENCY CARE

There are four options for a health emergency:

Call 911 for an ambulance  Call 911 if a life is in danger AND the individual cannot get to the emergency room. Ask for an ambulance.

The emergency room  An emergency room (ER) is a department in a hospital that treats life threatening or limb threatening illnesses and injuries. They are open 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. Appointments are NOT required. ERs are expensive and are a last resort. Ask to apply for financial assistance or a payment plan when at the ER.

An urgent care clinic  An urgent care clinic is not associated with a hospital and can treat non-life and non-limb threatening emergencies. Urgent care clinics will be open more often than primary doctors and are much cheaper than ERs. Appointments are NOT required. Always check the cost and accepted insurance plans with the clinic before using their services.

Primary doctors  Primary doctors provide ongoing care, are where a patient goes for undiagnosed symptoms, and can treat non-life and non-limb threatening emergencies. Primary doctors provide the most comprehensive care and are also usually the cheapest option. Only go to an urgent care clinic or emergency room if a life/limb is in danger OR if your primary doctor’s office is closed or too busy to see you.

HEALTH CLINICS

Free and sliding scale clinics provide medical services to uninsured or underinsured low-income individuals and families. Cost depends on income and insurance level, so these clinics’ fees can vary and sometimes are even free.

Different clinics will ask for different documents so always ask what to bring when making the appointment. Most clinics will ask for:

1. Photo ID
   Examples: driver’s license, immigration photo ID, other state-issued photo ID
2. Proof of address
   Examples: most recent gas, water, electric or phone bill
3. If you HAVE insurance: Insurance card
4. If you do NOT HAVE insurance: Proof of income from last 30 days
   Examples: most recent pay check, W2 form, unemployment eligibility sheet, current food stamp summary, student financial aid statement

PROPERTY INSURANCE

Property insurance protects things from basic damage. Renter’s insurance is for individuals and families renting a home or apartment and covers personal things from damages related to common weather (examples: wind, rain), structural damage to the building (examples: fire, flood), and theft. Homeowner’s insurance is for individuals and families who own their own home and protects both the home and personal things from damages.

Different insurance policies cover different types of damage and some things, like tornado or earthquake damage, may have to be purchased through separate insurance policies. Georgia does not require property insurance, but some apartment complexes and mortgage companies may require it.

PUBLIC HOUSING

Public housing, or low-cost, government-supported housing, was started to provide low-income families safe, clean, low-cost housing. Public housing can be apartments or houses. There are many organizations that specialize in managing public housing and can help locate public housing in the area.

BILL PAY

There are many organizations that can help pay or lower monthly bills for housing (rent or mortgage), energy, food, and transportation. Each program has different eligibility requirements and offers different services. Contact the service provider to learn about their services and eligibility requirements.

OVERVIEW

Lawyers are trained and licensed to give legal advice. Attorneys are trained and licensed to give legal advice and represent clients in court. Everyone has a right to legal advice and representation in the U.S.

GENERAL LEGAL SERVICES

While lawyers and attorneys can sometimes be expensive, for some problems it is best to spend the money on their services. Only hire lawyers and attorneys who are licensed. The American Bar Association and the Atlanta Bar Association provide lists of licensed lawyers and attorneys.

IMMIGRATION LEGAL SERVICES

Individuals may file their own immigration forms with USCIS. They may also have someone read/interpret the questions aloud and write down their answers. However, any help beyond this MUST come from a licensed attorney or a Board of Immigration Appeals (BIA) accredited representative. No other individual is qualified to provide assistance with USCIS paperwork, including tax preparers and notaries. If an individual needs help with translation, he or she MUST go to a certified translator.

COMMON IMMIGRATION SCAMS

Telephone Scams People posing as USCIS officials may call and ask for identifying information, claim there is a problem with the application, and ask for the money to fix it. USCIS officials will NEVER call and ask for money over the phone!

Local Businesses Some businesses claim they can file USCIS paperwork, perhaps even faster than USCIS. Only USCIS and licensed lawyers/attorneys/representatives can legally claim knowledge of the USCIS process and file paperwork!

Dot-com Websites Websites that end in “.com” claim to be affiliated with USCIS and charge for forms. USCIS has its own website and forms are FREE!

Visa Lottery Once a year the Department of State (DOS) has a visa lottery called the DV Lottery. People and websites posing as DOS may claim (often through email) they can help with lottery applications or that you won. The only way to apply for the lottery is through the official government process and the DOS never sends applicants emails!

INS People and websites claim to be affiliated with Immigration and Naturalization Services (INS) and try to assist with USCIS paperwork. INS closed in 2003 and no longer exists! All official contact will be from USCIS!

If you receive a scam phone call, email, or are approached in person, say “No thank you.” If you think something might be a scam, contact USCIS to check before sharing any personal information.
When to consider hiring a general lawyer or attorney:

- You were in an accident and are hurt or hurt someone else
- You are not a citizen and are being investigated for a crime
- You are a citizen and being investigated for a crime
- You need to understand your immigration legal options
- You are encountering delays with the USCIS process
- You are getting a divorce
- You need advice on which USCIS forms to fill out

OVERVIEW

Taxes are fees paid to the government to pay for things like roads, schools, the military, and social services like Medicaid and SNAP. The amount of taxes an individual pays is based on income and family size. The Internal Revenue Service (IRS) collects taxes for the nation and The Georgia Department of Revenue collects taxes for the state.

Taxes are due every year on April 15th. It is important that tax returns are filled out on time and correctly to avoid paying the wrong amount of taxes or penalties. Reputable organizations, like the IRS, offer free help.

COMMON TAX SCAMS

Telephone: People pretending to be the IRS or other government officials, like the police, call and claim you owe the IRS money or are owed a refund. These people can make their phone numbers imitate the IRS phone number and may bully you and tell you that you will be fined or arrested for not complying. The IRS will not call and threaten you! If you receive a phone call from the IRS, politely hang up and call the IRS at 1-800-829-1040.

Phishing: These are emails and websites that look real but are fake. They ask for personal information, like Social Security or Alien Identification numbers, and use it to steal identities. The IRS and Georgia Department of Revenue will not send emails, texts, or social media messages! Do not respond to tax emails from anyone and do not use websites you do not know and trust. If you receive one of these emails, report it by forwarding it to the IRS at phishing@irs.gov.

Free Money Promises: People pose as tax preparers and claim they can help get higher tax refunds. These people may (1) charge high fees, (2) steal identities, (3) file false claims using your name, (4) not give you a copy of your tax return, or (5) take all of your refund. Honest tax preparers will put their Identification Number on your tax return and will not make promises to get you a lot of money! Only use tax preparers that you trust.

False Claims: People pose as tax preparers and suggest filing false information on tax returns to get more money or benefits or to avoid paying taxes or losing benefits. Honest tax preparers will ask for proof of income and exemptions and will never suggest you lie on your tax return! You are legally responsible for your tax return, even if someone else helps you fill it out, and can face fines and jail for intentionally lying.

PRE-K AND DAYCARE SERVICES

There are many child-care options for children that are younger than 5 years old. The purpose of daycare is to supervise children. Some daycare programs may also offer academic help or enrichment activities. Many daycare programs serve children from 6 weeks to 12 years old and have extended hours that match parents’ work schedules. Pre-Kindergarten (Pre-K) is designed to prepare children to start elementary school and provides academic help and enrichment activities. Many Pre-K programs serve children who are 4 years old on or before September 1st and have regular elementary school hours. There are three types of Pre-K programs:

- Private: Private Pre-K programs are not affiliated with the government and may be located in their own school building or in someone’s home. They are required to meet certain standards but may design their own curriculum. Some private Pre-Ks have extended hours.

- Bright from the Start: Bright from the Start Pre-K programs are paid for by the State of Georgia and follow Georgia’s standards and curriculum. These Pre-K programs may be located in their own school building, in someone’s home, or in public schools.

- Head Start: Head Start Pre-K programs are paid for by the federal government and follow federal standards and curriculum. These Pre-K programs may be located in their own school building, in someone’s home, or in public schools.

Daycare and Pre-K can be very expensive. Some programs, like Bright from the Start and Head Start, are free or provide financial assistance. Because there are more children than there are free Pre-Ks, it is important that children are registered as early as possible AND register at more than one Pre-K.

AFTER-SCHOOL SERVICES

Many organizations offer after-school programs that will help children with homework, build English language and literacy skills, provide enrichment activities, and provide additional supervision for children whose parents work. Some programs are free or offer financial assistance. Contact the child’s school or resettlement agency to learn about local programs.

SUMMER SERVICES

Some organizations offer summer camps that provide academic help, build English language and literacy skills, and provide a variety of enrichment activities like swimming lessons and fieldtrips. Some programs are free or offer assistance. Contact the child’s school or resettlement agency to learn about local programs.
