

About the Author

Ashley Coleman

Civic Engagement Manager
New American Pathways

A native of Gwinnett County, Ashley recently moved back home to Georgia after living in Nashville, Tennessee where she spent five years working within the space of refugee resettlement and immigrant rights in a number of different capacities related to adult education program development, education policy and advocacy.

Prior to Nashville, Ashley lived in Porto Alegre, Brazil for two years where she cultivated a love of teaching and the cultural exchanges that take place within the ESL classroom. She holds a Masters in Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages from the University of Southern California and a Bachelors of Arts in Political Science and Latin American Studies from Tulane University.

When Ashley isn't out canvassing, she enjoys exploring new musical artists at live shows, practicing yoga and watching documentaries with her beloved tabby cat, Lily.