

Laura Flusche is the Executive Director of the Museum of Design Atlanta (MODA). Under her leadership, the museum has been transformed into Atlanta's design hub, a leader in design thinking and STEAM education for youth, and a trailblazer in exploring ways that a museum can serve its community in the 21st century. A classical archaeologist by training, Laura lived in Rome, Italy for fifteen years where she taught at the university level, excavated on the Palatine Hill, and was a co-founder of the Institute of Design + Culture. She fiercely maintains that design is archaeology backwards.
