

From Uganda, East Africa, Justine Okello has a deep passion for community engagement and development. Before joining the New AP family, Justin served as Director of Programs and Technology at the Clarkston Community Center where he worked with refugees and immigrants in the Clarkston area. He developed many relationships with individuals, families and different stakeholders living and working in the area.

Justine graduated in 2010 with a Bachelor of Science in Information Technology & Communication from Gulu University in Northern Uganda. He has worked with a number of non-profit agencies, including UNICEF, Human Rights Focus (HURIFO), Save the Children and Acholi Education Initiative (AEI).

With his wife Kristina and lovely dog Dale, Justine calls Atlanta, Georgia – the first state he moved to after Uganda – home. He loves the outdoors, is a big fan of contemporary art and loves exploring different cultures.
